

It takes a village to raise a child

— African proverb

Deutsche Bank would like to thank all our clients who supported the 2011 Annual Charity Trading Day on 16th November. The children of South Africa will benefit from all commission earned on the day.

Over R1 million was raised and as the main beneficiary this year, Teach SA receives R400,000.

The remaining funds will be distributed to Deutsche Bank Africa Foundation projects addressing the needs of vulnerable communities through education, social investment and the arts.
